

PROSCENIUM 2020

“Love art in yourself, and not yourself in art.”

- Constantin Stanislavski, My Life in Art

Hurray! The most awaited Pravega 2020 is back again! Reaching out to all the drama and theatre lovers out there. Your beloved Proscenium is again embellished for your Grace this year.

Proscenium is an open stage theatre competition where participants across the country get to portray their acting skills and theatrical talents. Various expertise in this field will be judging the performances and will be present to give you suggestions and help to get better in your skills.

Below given are the Terms and Conditions of participation.

Eligibility:

1. Participants should belong to a Degree level Institute or University or Drama school or related institutions.
2. They should give clear information about their University or Drama school and its location.
3. They should bring their student ID cards and upload pictures of the same in the registration form.
4. More than one team from any institute can participate.

Allowed languages:

English, Hindi, Kannada.

Registration:

1. Registration is entirely online, available at pravega.org.
2. Registration forms will be closed on 30th November 2019 by 00:00 p.m.
3. Not more than 20 participants can be in a team.
4. Number of participants a team can have: 2-20.

Prelims:

1. Participants can submit their drama videos (not more than 15 minutes) till 30th November 2019. They can either submit the link for their videos while registering their teams, or can mail it to pravegaproscenium@gmail.com along with their team names on or before 30th November, 2019.
2. These videos will serve as the basis of selection for the finals.
3. The results will be out by the last week of December.

Finals:

1. Finals will be held in the IISc campus during Pravega 2020 at JN Tata Auditorium.
2. Topics and dates for finals will be informed later. Mime acts are also allowed.

TA Allowance: Shall be provided in form of vouchers which can be used to book tickets if selected for the finals. The value of the vouchers will be fixed for a city (mostly like Third AC train tickets for an adult, both to and fro).

Sanity:

1. Any sort of offensive, controversial, religious, political, vulgar, violent act is strictly prohibited. Teams will be disqualified if such is suspected.
2. No harmful or sharp objects or chemicals should be used or brought in for the finals.
3. Please bring your props on your own in the finals. We shall not be providing anything (basic chairs, tables, bottles will be available).
4. Participants should be consistent throughout the prelims and the finals.

Judgment:

Participants will be assessed mainly on coordination, tempo, perfection, sink, and their involvement in the performance.

Prizes:

Will soon be informed.

The Stage is waiting for you!
